NARRATOR: (without music) Christ, the King chose to leave His throne to come to earth...choosing to become one of us. The story of Christmas is a story about choices. We are going to discover that every person who took part in the wondrous event we call Christmas was faced with choices... beginning with God. (music begins) For God Himself chose the perfect moment in time and the precise location for the birth of the Savior. He chose a common teenage girl to be the mother of His Son. I wonder how many of us have ever pondered or considered the dilemma of this young Jewish girl, named Mary, the one God had chosen? She was engaged and waiting for her wedding day when an angel appeared to announce that God had selected her to bear His Son. Although God had chosen Mary, would she submit to the will of her Lord? You see, God would never force Mary to do something contrary to her will. For God gave mankind, from the beginning of time, the freedom of choice. Would she choose to obey God or would she run away? Would she tell Joseph, her fiancé, of her glorious blessing, or would she hide in shame? What would her parents think? What would her friends think? Surely she realized the consequences, yet she still chose to surrender to the Lord's marvelous plan for her life. "Be it unto me according to your word" was Mary's choice.

*NARRATOR: The Lord does all things well and what He does, He does perfectly and completely. Just as God chose Mary, He had also chosen Joseph to be the earthly father to His heavenly Son. Now Joseph was a just man...and after hearing of a coming child, not wanting to disgrace Mary, he decided to secretly break the engagement. But God intervened and sent the angel of the Lord to Joseph in a dream and told him the Child that Mary was carrying was conceived in her by the Holy Spirit. Joseph pushed back his fear and chose to obey the voice of God and took Mary as his wife.
